

JOB DESCRIPTION

POSITION TITLE: Business Transformation
BUSINESS UNIT: FRVx
LOCATION: Madrid (Availability to travel)
REPORTS TO: Business Transformation Manager

OVERVIEW:

Leading global operator specialised in the complete management of solar and wind assets for the generation of electricity is looking for a Business Transformation Analyst.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

As part of the FRVx Unit this position will be accountable for:

- Pursue strategic analysis and projects in disruptive technology trends and competition, identifying impacts, risks and opportunities for FRVx in the medium / long term.
- Participate in the FRVx Strategic Plan, Strategic Agenda and provide business management as required.
- Conduct market research and analyse data providing insights to the business team.
- Project Management of key initiatives within innovation framework collaborating with stakeholders across the company.
- Develop positive relationships and works in partnership with internal and external stakeholders.
- Being up to date with technology trends and innovations of the sector to identify business solutions/opportunities.
- Articulating complex information in clear, meaningful, and structured way to suit audience.
- Other ad-hoc duties.

QUALIFICATION AND EXPERTISE:

- BSc Computer Science, Industrial Engineering or Degree level in a relevant discipline.
- A minimum of 2 years' of past experience in business transformation projects (i.e.: workforce transformation, energy transition learning solutions, new systems implementation).
- Experience in the Energy sector is highly valued.
- Degree level in a relevant discipline or experience in a similar / relevant role.
- High level of English, both written and spoken.

SOFT SKILLS:

- Analytical thinking.
- Great communication skills.
- Proactive.
- Innovative and team spirit.