

POSITION TITLE: Head of Supply Chain Management
DEPARTMENT: Supply Chain Management
LOCATION: Madrid (Availability to travel)
REPORTS TO: COO (hierarchically) and Managing Director of FRV-X (dotted line)

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Reporting to the Chief Operational Officer and Head of FRV-X this role will be accountable for:

- In depth analysis of new technologies, trends, and renewable asset main equipment's.
- Performing market outlook analysis for major renewable equipment.
- Creating, maintaining, and developing strong key commercial relationships with major equipment suppliers and other relevant stakeholders.
- Identifying new suppliers.
- Monitoring suppliers' quality standards and processes through site visits.
- Conducting rigorous RFQ process including supplier screening and quote analysis.
- Leading negotiations with suppliers.
- Ensuring suppliers' certification and qualification process.
- Developing and maintaining internal scorecards to prioritize suppliers.
- Ensuring conformity with internal Compliance processes and procedures.
- Coordination with construction, asset management and engineering departments updating different suppliers' information.
- Monitoring qualifications, delivery times, product ranges, etc.
- Coordination with other departments (construction, AM, Engineering, O&M, legal, finance and insurance) to ensure that contracts are aligned with their requirements and needs.

BACKGROUND & EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's degree in Engineering.
- Master's degree in Renewables or MBA (highly valued).
- +7 years of experience in supply chain or related activities in the PV/Wind field.
- Well established network of suppliers.
- Experience trading with international suppliers on EPC structures.

KNOWLEDGE:

- Good knowledge of Excel.
- English level required: C1/C2