

JOB DESCRIPTION

POSITION TITLE: Grid Specialist
BUSINESS UNIT: UK
LOCATION: West London
REPORTS TO: MD, UK

OVERVIEW:

Leading global operator specialised in the complete management of renewable assets for the generation of electricity is looking for a Grid Specialist.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Reporting to the Managing Director of UK, this position will be accountable for:

- Managing grid connection from origination to completion.
- Identifying potential capacity opportunities, assess sites for connection viability, able to evaluate viability of a grid connection. Utilise network flow and power system analysis techniques to investigate new project opportunities.
- Liaising with DNO/National Grid pre-connection application and post connection offer acceptance.
- Managing complete process of grid applications, ensuring they are submitted in time. Liaising with the engineering team for required details for connection applications.
- Building relationships with DNOs, National Grid, ICPs and IDNOs.
- Techno-commercial appraisal of the grid connection offers. Evaluating potential for cost reduction of contestable works, network constraints, and grid risk mitigation.
- Technical due diligence of grid connections for potential projects identified for acquisition.

QUALIFICATION AND EXPERTISE:

- Degree in Electrical/Energy Engineering or related discipline.
- Deep understanding of the grid network in UK both for distribution and transmission.
- Knowledge of UK energy landscape.
- Minimum 5 years' experience. DNO experience preferable.
- Strong analytical, communication and presentation skills.

SOFT SKILLS:

- Analytical and detail oriented.
- Organised.
- Proactive.
- Team spirit.