

The future happens here

JOB DESCRIPTION

POSITION TITLE: Permitting Specialist
BUSINESS UNIT: Italy
LOCATION: Rome
REPORTS TO: Project Development Manager, Italy

OVERVIEW:

Leading global operator specialized in the complete management of solar, storage and wind assets is looking for an Permitting Specialist for its Italy Business Unit.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

As part of the Project Development team, this position will be accountable for supporting the different stages of project development, including:

- Monitoring the entire authorization process and the related infrastructures for connection to the grid of FRV pipeline projects;
- Working with local and central authorities to obtain permits, licenses and authorizations ("PLAs"), as well as other necessary documents such as environmental impact assessments and grid connection studies;
- Review technical and administrative documents need to obtain PLAs;
- Working in close coordination with the italian team with particular regards to design, construction, business development and project management;
- Keeping constantly updated on regulatory developments both national and regional level for the authorization of plants;
- Auditing existing group permits to ensure compliance.

QUALIFICATION AND EXPERTISE:

- Bachelor's degree in Engineering/Architecture;
- +2 years of combined professional experience working (directly or indirectly) in the renewable large scale industry. Ideally the candidate will have a solid development and technical background being involved in all project life cycle;
- Familiarity with permitting process and interaction with local and federal authorities and with external technical, legal and financial advisers.

SOFT SKILLS:

- Excellent communicator;
- Intellectual curiosity and desire to learn new skills;
- Project management and problem-solving;
- Team spirit and proactive;
- Creative and open-minded individual with a good sense of humor.